

Stones concert Pics!

Yes of course Biker Wales had to go to the Stones Concert in the Millenium Stadium - couldn't miss the greatest rock band in the world could we. Awesome show with a moving stage so that everyone could get a full eyeball of the boys in action.

Reckon Keith and Mick must have some kind of bionic implants to perform at that rate. Pics in the PhotoÂ Gallery (click on Latest Uploads) - not bad ones either considering the befuddlement of the photographer.
