

Rideout 14th. June 2008

With Dave Redhunter planning a great route and setting a brisk pace, we headed up to Devil's Bridge calling in at the legendary Red Kite Cafe on the way to do some free site advertising (thanks guys!).

Â

Closely followed by a brisk run back through Rhayader and the back road to Beulah (depositing some of Stuart's left boot in the process). Finally back via the West End Cafe, except for Bomber who decided to stop somewhere else so he didn't have to share his second dinner with anyone.

You can download all our favourite rideout routes, or share your own in our Rideout Routes. section.

If you fancy joining us for one of our rideouts why not sign up on our Biker Forum. The Newbies board has a thread where you can let people know who you are, and a Rideout Buddies section so you can find other bikers who live near you.

There's also a busy Events and Rideouts board and lots more great stuff including a 2D AND a 3D Chat Room. Sign up is easy and free and we won't pester you with lots of emails or pass your details on to anyone else.
