

Dave's Big Day Out

Well it was a Bank Holiday and Dave hadn't been out on his bike much this year, so he and Ceri decided to take us on a grand tour, including:

Terry's Van (where we found Hamster alive
and well!)
Some very surreal
live woodcarving in a field.
Dave's first and only
(he tells us!) visit to the Ladies

and a generous sprinkling of Wales'
finest water on the way home - you can see it all in glorious HD here.

A brilliant day out - when's the next one Dave!
