

Bethlehem Rideout 2013

We had a select turnout for this year's annual rideout to Bethlehem for the Christmas Fayre. Stewie and R2 couldn't make it this year, so we had to take to the skies to get those candid camera shots - click below for the video:

Stuartf had an intimate discussion with Santa which daveredhunter kindly captured and has become the subject of the Christmas Caption Competition. Don't miss your chance to (mildly!) abuse the management and win a free aerial video of your home, business or whatever (see Fun Stuff in the Biker Forum for details).
